

Can a Supervisor Refer an Employee to the EAP?

Occasionally, a supervisor may recommend that an employee contact the EAP when there is a work performance problem. Everything discussed between the counselor and employee is strictly confidential, unless written consent is given by the employee. Even with consent, only necessary information is revealed to the supervisor.

How Do You Contact the EAP?

To obtain services or information, call us toll-free at 800-869-0276. We are available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week to assist you.

You can also confidentially request EAP services by secure e-mail on the Member Access page of our website at www.eapconsultants.com.

Special Information for Employees

Employees receive EAP assessment, short-term counseling and referral services at no cost.

When you call the EAP, we will ask you a few brief questions to help determine the counselor best suited to provide the assistance you need.

You must cancel any scheduled appointments 24 hours in advance, unless there is an emergency. Otherwise, it will be counted as one of your EAP sessions.

Employee Assistance Program

What is Your Employee Assistance Program (EAP)?

Everyone has personal problems from time to time. Your EAP offers professional, confidential counseling and consultation that can help you resolve these issues. Services are available at no cost to you.

Your employer has contracted with EAP Consultants, Inc. to provide you with comprehensive EAP services. We offer assessment, short-term counseling, and referral services for a wide range of personal problems.

Our private offices are conveniently located near your work or home. Our EAP professionals will help you identify and clarify your concerns, look at all the options, and develop a plan of action to create solutions that work. If additional assistance is needed, you will be referred to the most appropriate and affordable resources.

Who Provides the EAP Services?

Our clinical providers are highly experienced:

- Licensed psychologists
- Licensed clinical social workers
- Licensed professional counselors
- Licensed marriage and family therapists
- Certified alcohol and drug counselors

All of our providers meet stringent criteria for professionalism and experience. We always look to choose the most appropriate expert to meet your individual needs.

How Can the EAP Help You?

The EAP can help you find solutions to a full range of personal concerns. No problem is too big or too small. These can include:

- Stress
- Crisis
- Marital & Family Problems
- Emotional Concerns
- Relationship Issues
- Psychiatric Disorders
- Work Related Difficulties
- Alcohol & Drug Problems
- Life Adjustments
- Medical Problems

On-line Resources

The EAP offers extensive on-line resources to help with most any of life's common issues and concerns. You may obtain expert advice on a wide range of topics, gather information and resources, take self-screenings, or just learn more about the EAP's offerings.

To access, go to www.eapconsultants.com and click on the Member Access page. To request your password, send an email to password@eapconsultants.com.

Are There Any Costs for Using the EAP?

The EAP is free of charge for you and your dependent family members. The program is prepaid by your employer. You will be responsible for the cost of additional services to which you may be referred. We will assist you in finding resources that are covered by your insurance, and that meet your financial capabilities.

Is Counseling Really Confidential?

Counseling sessions are completely confidential, within the bounds of the law. Your EAP counselor is available to discuss confidentiality issues with you.
